The Chairman Speaks :

On the centre pages of this magazine you will see some of the social activities of the sporting sections of the Club.

Tattersall's Club is indeed fortunate in having such a band of enthusiastic officials who organise these sporting events, all of which create interest within the Club for members.

Around this time of the year our sporting clubs are most active. The Swimming Club held their cocktail party recently; the Billiards and Snooker Club had their presentation night and have just started their new tournament. The newly formed Golf Club has got away to a grand start, no less than 82 members attended the last outing, whilst the Handball, Camera, Swimming and Bowling Clubs are all stepping up their activities.

It is always my pleasure as the chairman of the Club to attend any function of these fine sporting clubs as I feel sure that with the spirit that exists within these clubs, Tattersall's will always go from strength to strength.

NEWS & VIEWS

OVERSEAS

Club Secretary, Lyal Binns, recently received a letter from Judge Holden who, with his wife, is enjoying a leisurely trip round the world.

Judge Holden remarked that while standing in the foyer of his hotel Les Tidmarsh tapped him on the shoulder, and later that evening he ran into Laurie Maher and Bob Lindsay, also members, which goes to show what a small world it is.

Judge Holden gives the Club a nice pat on the back after visiting the Terminal City Club at Vancouver, and although this club was very pleasant he still says that "Tatt's is the equal of any."

The Club also received a similar letter from R. C. Small who made a recent trip to America. He stated that he enjoyed having the reciprocal rights to the wonderful amenities of these clubs.

Another pat on the back when he says: "At the same time I would like you and the Committee to know that our own Club compares most favourably with our partners in the U.S.A."

Chairman, Frank Carberry, recently received a card from member Jack Fitz, who is enjoying a world tour with his wife, Molly. Unfortunately Molly broke her arm in Istanbul and had to continue the trip with her arm in plaster, however she is standing up to it very well and is enjoying the trip.

Jack met members Carl Smith and Athol Williams in London, and spent an hour with member Abe Landa who is the N.S.W. Agent General in London.

Another of our members, John Moon, has travelled extensively and attended the Rotary International Convention in Nice, following which he looks forward to a trip to Russia. Prior to the convention he toured the Middle East, before the outbreak of hostilities, and visited Amman, Jerusalem, Jerico, Bethlehem, Beirut, Damascus and Cairo. Then as a contrast to the heat, he travelled through Switzerland and Austria where on occasions the snow was piled up to 15 feet at the sides of the roads.

We all wish you a successful and interesting trip, John.

Following his return from an extensive tour of the U.S.A. and Canada, Member Peter Halse wrote us the letter hereunder which we feel is self explanatory:

"In most places I was very limited by lack of time, but was fortunate enough to visit the Outrigger Canoe Club in Honolulu and the Athletic Clubs in New York and Los Angeles.

"I say 'fortunate' because they are wonderful clubs — they extended every possible courtesy and helped immeasurably to make my visit to these strange cities more homely and pleasant. It is wonderful to have this reciprocal arrangement and any member travelling overseas is unwise not to visit them."

Well known member, Lou Maddrell, held a party in the Club recently with his family, prior to his departure on a world trip across the Pacific to Vancouver, America, Panama, then to Southampton, from where he will return to his homeland, the Isle of Man.

Lou has the unique distinction of being the only member born on the Isle of Man. Following this visit he intends to see Ireland, Scotland and England, will then spend several weeks on the Continent, departing Naples in November to return to Sydney.

NEW PRESIDENT FOR THE AUSTRALIAN SWIMMING UNION

Club member Bill Berge Phillips, after serving for 27 years as secretary of the Union, has been elected unopposed as president. He is also president of the world swimming body, F.I.N.A., and president of the International Sports Federation. Bill, what do you do with your spare time?

ON THE SICK LIST

Chairman Frank Carberry unfortunately took ill on his way to Grafton Races and had to fly back to Sydney, where he was admitted to Lewisham Hospital. Frank, we at the Club are all wishing you a speedy recovery.

PROUD OWNER

One of our well known members, Charles Bingham, recently had a field day at the Setter Club of the N.S.W. Championship Show in Parramatta Park. Charles is the proud owner of a male Irish setter aged 20 months, named "Red Tree Paddy O'Toole", which won the following awards: First in class Intermediate Challenge male; Best of breed; Best Intermediate in show; Second best-coated dog; best exhibit in show Irish Setter; Best exhibit in show all breeds.

Charles is, of course, very proud of his dog, as can be seen from the accompanying photograph. Charles finished the day not only collecting the prizes for his beautiful dog, but won the annual raffle which was an electric frypan. This just about filled his cup, and no doubt he celebrated his success. Congratulations, Charles, on a fine performance.

BACK OF BOURKE

A group of members and friends gathered together recently to farewell John Cleary who departed Sydney to take over a hotel near Bourke.

Keith Parsonage made the farewell speech, followed by a presentation eloquently carried out by Phil Scholer.

John proposes to visit Sydney and the Club regularly so that he won't lose touch with old friends.

CONSISTENT

In joking mood, member Neville Prendergast recently proclaimed to friends something of a snooker record. In 22 years of constant play, he has never won a match — competition, that is.

In quest of success, Neville started the game early — at the age of 15 — in Canberra, where he contested local tournaments of various clubs, off good marks and bad marks — all to no avail. He never survived the first round.

Thence to Sydney where he shaped up for Journalists' Club tournaments, Y.M.C.A. tournaments, City Tattersalls' Club tournaments and over the past 10 years — our own Club tournaments. And every time he was still knocked out in the very first match.

Undaunted, last year Neville hit on an idea to "break through" — he entered the Club's billiards tournament, although his only knowledge of billiards was an instructional half-hour from Peter McGrath the day prior to the game. Alas, it was the same with billiards as in snooker — outed in the first round.

In all these 22 years, Neville has never received a bye in any of the tournaments, nor a forfeit from some kindly or otherwise-occupied opponent. According to Neville, all his opponents can spare the few minutes it takes to take care of him.

THE RIGHT NOTE

Club member Ken Pettengell, a part owner of Songwriter, was elated when the horse recently won at the nice odds of 8-1. Ken did the right thing by his friends at the Club, who all had nice wins. When does Songwriter start again, Ken?

AROUND THE WORLD IN 20 DAYS

Committeeman Les Tidmarsh recently returned suntanned and in the best of health after a world tour. First port of call Singapore, then Beirut, Frankfurt in Germany then England. At the Derby Les met the Lord and Lady Mayoress of Sydney, John and Mrs. Armstrong. Also in attendance were Club members Bill Waterhouse and Jack Rorrison. Next on to New York, Bermuda, Mexico City, Acapulco, then back to Australia. Nice to see you back, Les.

HAPPY OCCASION

A dinner party given by well known member, Allen Johnston and his wife, was enjoyed by nearly 50 guests in the Function Room recently.

The occasion was the impending marriage of their son, and provided an opportunity for the young couple to see their Sydney friends, as the wedding will be in Melbourne. Best wishes to Graham and Helen on their marriage.

ON THE RECOVERY LIST

Club member Eric Smith, chairman of Tattersall's Club, Newcastle, also a committeeman of the N.J.C., has been on the sick list for some time. It was indeed unfortunate that for the first time for over ten years Eric had to miss the Grafton races, but we feel sure that Bill Clark held the fort for you, Eric.

FOUND — ONE OLD ENGLISH STABLE

No more stables please, the Camera Club has located one on the property of Club member Claude Parker, who has the Killarney Lakes spelling paddock at Windsor.

HONOUR

One of our well known members, T. K. Shakespeare, was recently granted an MBE by the Queen. Mr. Shakespeare is the president of the N.S.W. Bowlers Club, having given over 40 years of service to the game of bowls.

Mr. Shakespeare has constantly worked for those less privileged than we, and among his many achievements he has helped build the Bowlers' Home for the Aged at Wellington, and is working on further similar homes to be built at Balmain. He helped build the Therapy Ward at Hornsby Hospital and the bowling green at Prince Henry Hospital.

He has played a big part in establishing, securing finance, and opening many bowling clubs. About 30 years ago, Mr. Shakespeare established Rotary Days and Charity Days throughout the State, promoted several Art Unions, and has raised over $1,000,000 for community efforts.

The Club extends congratulations to you, Mr. Shakespeare, on such a fine record, and on attaining an MBE, a just reward for your services.

FIJI BOUND

Stan Lands and Mrs. Lands left for their holidays recently in Fiji where they plan to stay for some time. A romantic place for your holidays, Stan.

SEA VOYAGE

Lal Bowden, one of our most regular and popular bookmaking members, left recently by ship for an extensive trip overseas. Lal expects to be away for 16 weeks and to visit most countries.

"BILL'S CORNER"

Committeeman Alf Collins received word from that Prince of Storytellers Lieut. Commander Joseph Beichalter, who stayed at the Club during his recent visit to Australia. Joe arrived back home after visiting New Zealand, Fiji and Canada. He sends his regards to all in "Bill's Corner".

CORAL SEA VISITORS

Another thank you letter was received from the president of the Australian-American Association following the Coral Sea Week celebrations, when honorary membership was made available to the officers of the various ships. The officers extend their appreciation to the Club for this courtesy.

GRANDFATHER

Well-known member, Charles Blount, has reason to feel very proud. He has just become a grandfather for the first time. Congratulations are extended by all your friends, Charles.

WORLD TRIP

Wednesday, 26th July, saw a very happy group of Club Members saying au revoir to Keith Moremon in the second floor function room.

Keith and his charming wife, Jill, left on August 1st for a world trip which will take in Singapore, Rome, Florence, Venice, Paris, London, New York, Las Vegas, Los Angeles and then home via Honolulu.

Good luck and safe landings to you, Keith, and your wife, and we look forward to your return to the Club.

OLD FRIENDS MEET

During Tom Nicholas' trip overseas he met with Kevin Doyle in New York, who has asked him to pass on his warmest regards to his many friends at Tattersall's Club.

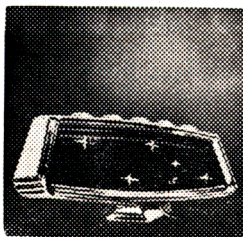

Kevin is quite an old New Yorker now and assures any of his friends a warm welcome should they have the opportunity of visiting New York.

GOING WALKABOUT

Another Club Member taking off for distant parts is John Reid, N.S.W. Manager of Columbia Pictures, who is making a very comprehensive tour of New Guinea and will be leaving Sydney on 9th August next.

During John's travels he will visit Port Moresby, Madang, Wewak, Kavieng, Rabaul, Lae, Bulolo, Mt. Hagan, Goroka and Popondetta, and no doubt will be talking to us in pidgin when he returns.

GEORGE MOORE A RAVE ON ENGLISH TURF:

But Australia has done it before

George Moore, Scobie Breasley and other Australian jockeys have set the English turf on fire, but their triumphs are not the first by any means.

An Australian apprentice, Frank Wootton, won the English adult Jockey Premiership four times in succession from 1909 to 1912, and rode 882 winners on English courses.

Australian racehorses, owners, trainers, jockeys, and even a bookmaker, have made a deep impression in the past.

Frank Wootton and his brother, Stanley, were taken to South Africa by their father, trainer Dick Wootton, with a racehorse, Queen of Sheba, which had just won the 1902 Metropolitan. There he stayed long enough to make a fortune to exploit the English turf.

Queen of Sheba won a big race ridden by Frank Wootton then 12 years of age, and with this unknown jockey in the saddle the bookmakers allowed Dick Wootton to get on at cricket score odds. In England he established a formidable stable, and won hundreds of races.

Frank became one of the best jockeys the world ever saw, but increasing weight during War service soon ended his career.

Stanley was also a good jockey, and became an officer in the English army during World War I, later returning to become a leading trainer.

Son Stanley concentrated in England on selling races, and did not hesitate to venture $20,000 usually at pronounced odds-on on his good things. So many came off that he became one of the richest trainers in England.

He purchased famous Epsom Downs where the Derby is run, had innumerable other financial interests and is now a millionaire. He selected Star Kingdom for the Australian stud, who was to become one of the greatest winning stallions in history.

J. E. Brewer was another Australian who went to England with a few horses to become a notable trainer. He had been one of Australia's foremost jumping jockeys, and won six Grand Nationals.

Jack Brewer conferred a rich blessing on the Australian turf and breeding when he selected a stallion, The Welkin, and a brood mare, Teppo, for the stud of E. E. D. Clarke in Victoria. They produced innumerable winners including untold classics. Trivalve, a grandson of The Welkin and Teppo, won the 1927 Melbourne Cup for Mr. Clarke.

Still another Australian horse, Mer-man, won the English Ascot Gold Cup, and an $80,000 betting coup on the Cambridgeshire for actress Lily Langtry who had purchased him after a Williamstown Cup success.

But by far Australia's greatest equine representative to travel to England was Carbine. Some time after his 1890 Melbourne Cup success carrying 10.5, Carbine was purchased at 13,000 gns., then the highest Australian thoroughbred price, by the Duke of Portland for his Welbeck Stud in England. There he was a complete success, siring an English Derby winner, Spearmint, and setting up a bloodline with the St. Simon Cross which became famous in every country where thoroughbreds were raised.

Jockey Frank Bullock went to England after winning the 1905 Melbourne Cup on Blue Spec, and after riding successfully in England returned to land two Caulfield Cups on English importations, King Offa and Lucknow, 1918-19.

Brownie Carslake, son of Caulfield trainer, was one of the first to establish himself permanently as a jockey on the English turf around the 1930s, and won hundreds of races.

Edgar Britt became permanently established in England after winning races on Winooka in Australia and America, and piloting numerous winners in India.

Bill McLachlan became an early Australian permanent as an apprentice. He rode there with his father, W. H. McLachlan, winner of three Melbourne Cups, and became lightweight for the Royal stable, frequently carrying King George VI's colours to victory.

As an apprentice he landed the two legs of a double on big betting races for an American millionaire who won a million Sterling in pre-post wagers.

All these racing feats go to prove that Australia has a successful past on the English turf. The current trend is so overwhelming because England has, at present, four of Australia's best jockeys, George Moore, Scobie Breasley, Bill Williamson and Ron Hutchinson. All are riding for powerful stables controlled by expert trainers, so it isn't surprising that their records have developed into whirlwind successes.

Australia sent a bookmaker to England who was so successful that he became a millionaire. This was Joe Thompson, leader of the Victorian ring at Flemington who operated before the Caulfield Cup was started, and the rich double of the day for the pre-post gamblers was the Victoria Derby and Melbourne Cup.

Joe, the biggest pre-post operator of his day, ran a double on these events, and to the owner of a three-year-old colt named Chester he laid a $20,000 wager on the two events. Chester won and Joe Thompson, with an eye to publicity, insisted on paying out the huge win in front of the Bank of N.S.W. in Collins Street, Melbourne. A crowd of 10,000, the equivalent of the bet, milled round to catch a glimpse of more money than they had ever seen before.

Mr. Thompson was a complete success when he left soon afterwards for England's racecourses. It has always been said that the English racing sharpies were the world's keenest, but these Joe did not take on. He bet with the lords and millionaires who possessed more money but less racecourse intuition, and so he made his millions.

It is a curious coincidence that when Dick Wootton sent his sons Frank and Stanley, lads of 15 and 16 years, for their first trip home to Sydney to see their relatives, he put them in charge of Joe Thompson, a fellow traveller on the ship, which showed that Dick was "with the strength" in England.

SWIMMING CLUB'S COCKTAIL PARTY

A most enjoyable evening was held in the Club room last month when the Swimming Club had their Annual Cocktail Party. The illustrations show a small section of those present, all of whom seem to be having a happy time.

CLOSE OF SWIMMING SEASON

Ex world champion John Devitt had his seventh win in the Club championship on 6th July in 18.8 seconds before a good crowd of spectators in the pool.

Whilst his time was slower than his event record of 18.1 secs., he won comfortably from David Emanuel with Paul Blake third.

In the heats ex-Olympian Terry Gathercole qualified for the final in the third fastest time, but a trip to Perth prevented him from taking part in the final, which put Bryan Mortensen into the decider, however, he too was unable to compete, thus giving Paul Blake a swim.

Norm Rogers was also a finalist but he had a rough passage and was beaten by two feet by Paul.

It was good to see Alf Collins, donor of the championship trophies for many years past, acting again as a judge together with Leigh Bowes and Jim Comans, whilst Sam Block was to be congratulated upon his good starts.

Frank Falson, Arthur McCamley, Sam Block and Jack Dexter acted as time-keepers.

The "Native Son" trophy for most points scored in a season and presented by Bill Kirwan, was won by John Cunningham who had been in the box seat for months past with 172½ points, but the battle for the minor positions was a dour one.

With the last handicap event coming up Terry Forrest had headed David Cohen by a point, but in the decider Terry only gained second place in his heat while David won his heat and was second in the final, thus totalling 168 points for the second place in the season's contest to Terry Forrest's tally of 166 in third place.

Twenty-three swimmers scored over 100 points during the season, so there was no lack of competition.

The June point score went to Bryan Mortensen, his second of the year, with 27½ points, comfortably ahead of John Devitt and Bill Richards who each scored 22½.

In the last handicap of 1966/67 good times were notched by John Devitt, 18.5, and David Cohen 19.7.

It must be noted that while Devitt's 18.5 in the handicap was faster than his 18.8 in the championship the latter race was from a standing start whereas the former was from a handicap start in which a swimmer is as long as his toes are in contact with the starting platform when his number is called.

So ends another most successful swimming season for Tattersall's Club, and we look forward to the start of the 1967/68 season early in October.

The popularity of the Third Floor activities continues to grow. Officials are to be complimented upon the manner in which they conducted the events allowing the competitors to have lunch and get back to their jobs by two o'clock after a 1.15 p.m. race start.

To emphasise this we would mention that during the season no less than 423 handicap heats and finals were swum, and the average number of starters in the thirty-seven events was forty-six.

Club membership was one hundred and thirty-eight at the close of the season.

Winners of monthly point score trophies were: Bryan Mortensen (two), R. Cleaver, Norm Rogers (two), David Dind, John Cunningham, John Garrity, Leigh Bowes, David Cohen and Gordon Williams.

Golf Club's July Meeting at Pymble Great Success

SCORES

Four-Ball: Winners — John Vandenberg and Tony Freedman with 44 points; runners-up — Kevin McCann and John Rowles with 41 points.

Singles: Winner (member) — John Vandenberg 36 points on countback; winner (visitor)—David Lord, 36 points.

Having looked at the detailed scores you will see that there are many hidden stories between scores or in the bunkers. John Vandenberg turned in an "over the odds" performance and revelled in the going on this wonderful north side course.

With its tree-lined fairways looking well after the rain, Pymble provided a good test for golfers.

Tony Freedman, who cut his teeth on Bonnie Doon golf course, was wonderful support for John, especially as he carded a "2 a 4" at the 18th.

If you want the runners-up in black and white, there could be only one man to think of — Arthur McCrae — playing on his own course, with John Garrity to lean on and help at the vital points.

This team was late starting and played the last few holes in the fading light, which makes their effort all the more meritorious.

Tried and proven performers, fresh from their Pennant Hills success, were John Rowles and Kevin McCann, who were once again in the winning bracket and close on the heels of John and Tony.

David Lord, who was beaten on a countback in the visitors' singles event, will be in great demand on future days.

Our president, Geoff Eastment, was in great form and quipped his way through the presentations in his own happy manner.

Many of our members were still there when the shutters rolled down, and were reluctant to leave the friendly atmosphere of the Pymble Golf Club.

The September meeting at Manly on the 7th will draw a big field, and it could be an idea to make arrangements early. Bonnie Doon is also listed for the October meeting.

Membership fees are being accepted at the office on behalf of treasurer, Vic Vadas, and a lot of fun and fellowship will be the result. Those who wish to become members of the golf club please advise the office, and your name will be placed on the mailing list.

Dear Sir,

Congratulations, why not avail yourself of our unique service and have a reminder for all time of your horse's recent win and also of your past triumphs.

A magnificent antique finish metal plaque, hand painted and lettered, mounted on a polished mahogany finished shield 8½" x 5½", would make the perfect gift, or grace your home and office.

All you have to do is send us the details, your colours, horse's name, jockey's name, etc., and we will turn out a wall shield you'll be proud of.

Larger sizes are available and delivery guaranteed within one week, price $14.00, Post Paid.

Yours sincerely,

T. M. FINNIGAN.

Our Great Aussie Champ!—Snooker Break of 272

In case you missed the morning press report on 6/7/67, we give particulars of this remarkable achievement by Eddie Charlton.

Eddie Charlton (Australian Professional Snooker Champion) on tour of the Northern Rivers with Ken Donaghue, for the Royal N.S.W. Institute for Deaf & Blind Children, arrived in Kempsey on Wednesday afternoon 5th July in time for dinner, before an exhibition arranged at Kempsey-Crescent Head Country Club.

With Ken Donaghue as referee and before some hundreds of spectators, he arranged to play two local players each one frame of snooker.

Against his first opponent, he broke the red balls using the side and top cushion, potting a red in the process and carried on to clear the table with a 135 break.

Against his second opponent, he used the same break, which also potted a red and continued until he had cleared the table again for a break of 137—a total of 272—without either opponent lifting a cue! Surely this must be a world record?

Our thanks for the details go to Robert C. Fryer, Hon. Secretary, Amateur Billiards Association of N.S.W.

Our Annual Tournaments are well under way in their initial stages with the usual crop of upsets here and there. In this category, what could be regarded as the major upset to date, concerned none other than yours truly—your purveyor of these notes. Out of the blue and for the first time a competitor in our Snooker Tournament, Dr. A. A. (Bert) Wearne is a dyed in the wool "Dark Horse" from Canberra. Dr. Wearne is a prominent Surgeon by profession and with a dexterity born of surgical precision he proceeded to operate on this writer—and how! He thoroughly deserved to win, and I can but offer my condolences to those who supported me in the right quarter, with the scarcely comforting reminder that there is always next year.

Following are results of 1st Round Billiards and Snooker matches played to date:

BOWLING NOTES

The annual general meeting of the bowling club was held at Tattersall's Club on Monday, 10th July, 1967, in the Sportsman's Room and was attended by 42 members. There were very few changes made in the officers of the club. Don Wilson became the new vice-president and Harry Davis the new hon. publicity officer, owing to the retirement of Fred Empson.

A vote of thanks was conveyed to Fred Empson for the wonderful work which he had done for the last ten years as publicity officer and also for the excellent manner in which he had carried out the duty of arranging the catering for our Annual Ball and social events. Thanks once again, Fred.

Don Wilson presented his trophy to the winner Harry Davis and congratulated him on his performance throughout the competition. He also expressed how pleased he was with the interest it had created. Harry Davis responded and thanked Don Wilson for his generosity in presenting such a magnificent trophy, and also congratulated Nick Solomon on the able manner in which he had carried out a most difficult task in arranging teams to keep the competition so interesting throughout.

Jack Neville, our hon. secretary, read a letter which he had received from Tattersall's Club, Newcastle, inviting us to participate in a Round Robin to be played at Newcastle against three other clubs namely, City Tattersalls, Newcastle Tattersalls and Canberra Club. The invitation was unanimously accepted by all present. The competition will commence on Tuesday, 12th September, at Newcastle. The first day, Tuesday 12th, will see the first and second rounds played. Wednesday will be a rest day when all players are to be guests of Newcastle Tatt's at the races to witness the running of the Cameron Handicap. On Thursday, 14th, the final day, the third and fourth rounds will be played. Newcastle Tattersall's have donated a very fine trophy for this event which will be played for annually, each club acting as host on a rotation basis similar to the Turf Bowling Association competition. Several members have indicated they would be pleased to go but there are still a number of players required.

How about some of the top players coming along to let us get a good team together and once again put Tattersall's Club back on the map! We can assure you of a very good time. All interested members ring the hon.

secretary, Jack Neville, 96-5005, who will arrange your accommodation or place your name on the notice board on the first floor of the club. This is urgent. Wives are cordially invited to accompany their husbands. There will also be social games arranged.

The meeting then closed at 4.30 p.m. and the president, Dr. Porter, invited all present to accompany him for some light refreshments. He has asked me to convey his thanks to Tattersall's Club for arranging the refreshments for him.

ON THE GREEN

The trophy winners for the month of July are as follows—

29th June at Kensington, a washout.

6th July at City, F. Empson, D. McFarland, N. Solomon, 22 points.

13th July at Waverley, W. Stiffe, D. Wilson, A. Willis, 23 points.

20th July at Rose Bay, W. Stiffe, H. Davis, T. Dwyer, 23 points.

Last Thursday, 27th July, City Tattersall's played Newcastle Tattersall's at Pennant Hills and invited us to send a rink. The following members were selected to represent us—Don Wilson, M. Barnett, F. Spring and Jack Neville. Our president, Dr. Porter, was present at the luncheon to arrange details of the Newcastle Round Robin.

We were pleased to record the names of two new members, Ron Storey and Len Agnew. Welcome gentleman, and hope your stay with us will be a long and most enjoyable one. It was also nice to see the return of one of our old members, Jack Kellaway. We would like to see some more of the old members returning to the fold.

It was with real feeling of regret to learn of the passing of two of our esteemed fellow bowlers, Dr. John Ryan and Bert Levey. The president and members wish to convey their deepest sympathy to their wives and families.

Happy bowling to all.

ANOTHER ACE OF CLUBS

Member Arthur Murray had a few kind words for the Club and staff following his recent visit to Sydney at the time of the well-remembered train strike. He says "that nothing seemed a trouble on the several occasions when we had to leave the Club a little earlier than usual as we were playing in the bowls pennant finals at various suburban greens and the transport strike added to our problems, and the chef assured us of an excellent steak although the dining room did not open quite as early as required. These little courtesies make the Club what it really is, and our very pleasant stay was made doubly so when we assisted in winning the No. 2 State pennants for the Grafton Bowling Club for the first occasion."
